ADD ON

BMSCE WAKAI OTAKU can still play a role in enhancing students overall professional development and networking skills by :

- Networking Opportunities : The club can organize events or collaborations with professionals in related industries, providing members with networking opportunities. Networking can be a valuable resource for discovering internship openings through personal connections.
- Soft Skills Development : Through various club activities, students can develop soft skills such as communication, teamwork, and leadership. These skills are highly valued by employers and can enhance students' performance in internship interviews.
- Club Collaborations : Collaborating with other clubs or student organizations within the college, including those focused on professional development or career services, can create a broader network that might lead to internship opportunities.
- Guest Speaker Sessions : Organizing guest speaker sessions or workshops related to the anime industry, animation, or storytelling can attract professionals who may share insights into their careers. This exposure can inspire students and open up possibilities for internships.

ADD ON

- Industry Insights : Stay updated on industry trends and job fairs related to animation, media, or creative industries. The club can disseminate this information to its members, increasing awareness of internship opportunities within these sectors.
- Creative Portfolio Building : Encourage members to work on creative projects within the club, such as creating short animations, designing promotional material, or organizing events. These projects can be valuable additions to a student's portfolio when applying for creative internships.
- Alumni Connections : Engage with alumni who share an interest in anime or related fields. Alumni may provide guidance, mentorship, or information about internship opportunities at their workplaces.
- Online Presence : Establishing a strong online presence for the club, such as a website or social media platforms, can attract attention from professionals in the anime and creative industries. They may reach out to the club with internship opportunities.
